

Jimmie R. Eaves

February 3, 2012

God saw him getting tired, a cure was not to be. He wrapped him in his Loving arms and whispered "Come with me." He suffered much in silence, his spirit did not bend. He faced his pain with courage, until the very end. He tried so hard to stay with us but his fight was not in vain, God took him to His loving home and freed him from the pain.

We will miss you!

Love your family

“ The loss of a loved one is something we all have to deal with. No matter how many times we deal with a loss it doesn't seem to get any easier. We knew the day would come that we would lose Jimmie but that never prepares us for the loss. No matter how many times we've gone through the loss of a loved one, it doesn't seem to prepare us for the next time. The loss of Jimmie to cancer is difficult to handle. To see relationships that were built by a STRONG man come to an end due to cancer seems so unfair. The way for us to deal with this loss is to remember the impact he made in so many lives. Jimmie fought a good fight but he is not in pain anymore. I pray that you, Jason, his grandchildren, friends and the rest of the family will find peace in the great memories we have of Jimmie. His time was short and he will be missed so much. REST IN PEACE JIMMIE AND YOU WILL BE MISSED##imported-begin##Janice and Tracy Eaves##imported-end##

“ It seems so unfair that death should hold the power over us to take someone away that you love. Even though many of us have a strong faith, it doesn't make it any easier to think that we won't be able to talk and laugh with and hug this person. The Bible holds out a hope for us that I personally have found to be a comfort. I especially love the scripture found at John 5:28,29 that says, " Do not marvel at this because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus' voice and come out." Jesus promises that millions now dead will again live on this earth, and have the prospect of remaining on it forever under peaceful conditions. Most have all prayed for that time when they say the Lords prayer, "Our Father in Heaven let your Kingdom comealso upon the EARTH....." I find that to be so comforting, and I hope your family does as well. I hope that during this difficult time you can rely on God, who can give us the "power beyond what is normal"(2 Corinth 4:7) just to get through from one day to the next. Our thoughts and prayers are with you during this time.##imported-begin##jaycee##imported-end##

“ My family and I would like to offer you our deepest sympathy over the loss of your loved one. We have all lost someone that was very close to us ,that is why we can sympathized with you at this sad time in your life. God promise that one day we will be able to welcome back those we love by means of the resurrection. Jesus said "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out"(John 5:28,29). Just imagine the joy we will have when we see our dead loved ones coming to life to live in paradise, no sickness, sorrow, pain and death again (Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:3-5). ##imported-begin## Donald Phillips ##imported-end##
