“ Jim and I were roommates together in our early years in Forest and in my mind there was know better person than Jim. He always had that great big smile and always wanted to help people. Jim did not always have the best home life growing up, but never complained and worked his way out of it.The village of Forest was a big part of Jims life he cared so much for the town and its people.I know the town cared for Jim. He will be truly missed by every one who he had contact with.I will miss you my friend! To the Family it hard right now but Jim will always be in your hearts and you will think of him offten! as I will##imported-begin##Jim Hampton##imported-end##

“ To all of Jim's family & friends...Jim was such a big part of this community. It's so hard to think of the town crew w/o picturing Jim there too. I asked Jim once if he ever got up on his day off & put on a safety green t-shirt. He just laughed. Such a sweetheart. He'll be greatly missed.##imported-begin##Bev Tracy##imported-end##
