“ I was also born in 1941 I went to school in Upper Sandusky In same grade with him. I had a puppy love crush on him ! Our family moved when I was in 5th grade. I often wondered where his life took him!

“ I am a volunteer for hospice. I visited John every Monday morning for quite a few months. I used to be able to get him to smile, when that was difficult for him, I would rub his back and hold his hand or just comfort him. He was my favorite there and I will miss him. He was ready to go and I'm glad he's not suffering anymore.
