“ My condolences to Robbie, daughters and the family of John Williams.

I loved to listen to John's stories that he told and they would always make me laugh! He was a pleasure to work with and made the day fun and interesting.

I used to call him dad, as he had the same name as my father and had some familiar traits as well.

Rest in peace John "Worm" Williams!

“ Many great times spent with John exist on an endless fond memory list. John's legacy is so lovingly 🙏💙 remembered. Right now, the perfect words to offer our condolences are difficult to put together without flooding the room with tears. Soon, I'll calm down and pull it together for a visit flowing with friendship and love for John's dear family! ~Vicki and Van

Don't know if this is the same Johnny Williams we knew, some 55 years ago, from France's Skating rink in Bucyrus, but we've been trying to find him. He was such a nice guy and good friend. You have our deepest sympathies. PETE & DIANE MILLS
