“ Prayers go out to your family! Joe will always be remembered as such a kind and loving person. Joe was always during things for other people ex. he won a little extra at bingo he got gifts to be given out, numerous volunteer activities, always lending a hand to someone in need! I will miss Joe, but I know he is happy where he is being greatly rewarded for all his work on earth! Leslie Thiel

“ *Our deepest sympathies to Joe's family. We met Joe several years ago through the Senior Center. He was such a nice person and fun to be with. Shirley spent lots of Friday afternoons enjoying playing games at the Center with Joe and the group and he was such a good game player. He was patient in teaching me Pinochle and was always generously bringing us snacks. We will miss him so much and do hope he knew how much we enjoyed his friendship. He was a great guy!
