“ My husband Bob and I were fortunate to have met Joe through my brother Jeff Moore, who also just recently passed away on Jan. 27, 2021. My brother Jeff and Joe were very good friends. I feel quite certain that Jeff and Joe are both able to enjoy one another's company again in Heaven. Towards the end of this last summer, my husband and I were outside and Joe came by on his golf cart and stopped by to chat with us. He was always a very friendly person and we were blessed to have known him also. I'm sure he will be missed by all who knew him. Prayers from Bob and I to the family.

“ To the Ferguson family,

I am sorry for the loss of Joe. You have my sympathy and my prayers. I always enjoyed talking with Joe when he would come over to Kirby. I always learned more about your family and his life. It was always interesting talking to him. I loved hearing his stories.

My heartfelt condolences to you and your family. Ed would always call me when Joe came to visit him in El Paso. Ed & I were Army buddies and have know each other for years. Ever since he introduced me to his brother Joe, he felt like family, just like Ed has all these years. I will truly miss Joe's visits to El Paso. He was always laughing and in a good mood. R.I.P my brother 🙏
