“ Keith, I am sorry for your loss. I remember your mother as a kind and gentle soul who loved her children with all her heart. The loss will ease as you think of all the good times and special moments you shared with her.

A long time ago we were neighbors but I still remember how nice she was to me.

“ As a son-in-law, I always called Joyce “Mother Koehler” as she truly was like a wonderful second mother to me and a very loving grandmother to our two children. I will always remember her kind ways, really good cooking, cheerful personality, radiant smile, love of music, and strong faith, along with her deep commitment to her family, St. Paul Lutheran Church, and her community. We will all miss Joyce greatly while always treasuring her love and personality in our hearts and memories. I’m sure she’ll be singing in the choirs of heaven! May we all look forward to singing again with her! (son-in-law Fred Krebs)
