“ Carol and Darlene your sister in law and sister was so funny I would go into the nursing home and she would yell her greeting across the entire dining room to me and she called me by name. It was so nice and she always said it with a smile. I am sorry for your loss and I think you two gals are amazing to have opened up your home and life to her for all those years. She was a lucky duck and she was well taken care of. With sympathy and found lovely memories of her smiling. Betty Lok
