“ Scot and entire Boyd Family, I got to visit with your Dad regularly during his time in Arlington. We spoke of you and your boys regularly. We shared smiles while telling stories about "the good ol' days". I hoped I would see you tonite at the homes chicken bbq. I new that wouldn't be the case when I got to his door and found his name tag missing. I am sorry to have just found out about his passing. I am very sorry for your loss. Your entire family will be in my thoughts tomorrow. My trips to visit grandma won't be the same.....Sean##imported-begin##Sean Burrell Family##imported-end##

“ Barb, Mark, Neal, Scott & Families,

I have so many fond memories of all the times we went camping, had gatherings, parties, and many other things we shared together. We are so grateful that you shared Keith with all of us over the years.

He has now joined Dad - no more pain, suffering, or hurting - and for that we are blessed.

You are all in our thoughts and prayers. May God surround you with his everlasting love!

God Bless each of you!
