Worked with Kenny at Guardian. He and Bill Long could've been a comedy dual. So many memories - all good! Sincere condolences from the Falk family with special thoughts and prayers during this Christmas season.

I knew Kenny from the Friday Travel Golf League and also from playing golf with him at Carey when I was a member there. So sorry to hear of his passing. May he have lots of birdies in his new home. God bless Kenny and his family.

Arlene, Cindi, Lynne, Jan, and Charlotte: Pam, Steve, and I want to extend our gratitude to your Dad and brother for being such a great friend and classmate to our Dad, Justin. They're probably yucking it up right now. Our Dad kept a diary for 70 years. I came across the entry where Cindi and I spent our first birthday together in June 1958.
