“ Teddy Bear

*It's my very favorite place.
I feel closer to you there.
We rock the hours away.
Me and your Teddy Bear.*

*The rocking chair is squeaking,
as rocking chairs will do.
I pretend the one I'm holding isn't Teddy Bear, but you.*

*I miss your little chubby cheeks.
They were so fun to kiss.
Cuddling you, and hearing you goo are among the things I miss.*

*Precious memories of you linger.
My child I miss you so.
I hope one day my heart will heal.
It's hard to let you go.*

*When in time God calls me home
to be with you up there;
With joy I'll hold you in my arms
instead of Teddy Bear.*

*I went straight to be with Jesus,
but I'm waiting for you here.*

Many dwelling here where I live, waited years to enter in.

*Struggled through a world of sorrow,
a world marred with pain and sin.*

*Thank you for the life you gave me,
it was brief but don't complain.*

I have all Heaven's Glory, suffered none of earth's great pain.

Thank you for the name you gave me.

I'd have loved to bring it fame.

*But if I'd lingered in earth's shadows,
I would have suffered just the same.*

So sweet family-don't you sorrow.

Wipe those tears and chase the gloom.

*I went straight to Jesus' arms
