“ *Today, I had a funny story and thought to myself how much you would have cracked up.
Today, I realize how much of a friend I have lost.
Today, my eye's well up and miss you.
Today, I realize what a true friend I have lost.
Today, I realize how lost we all will be without you.
Today, I realize all the things I took for granted.
Today, my friend.....I miss you!
Today, I send my most sincere condolences to your family and to all of your loved ones and to all the people's lives you have touch.
Now, always, and forever we will miss you!###imported-begin##.....###imported-end##*

“ Aunt Mary Lou and Uncle Dude, Debbie and Jimmy. Our whole family is very sad and sorry to hear about Kris. All of us have so many happy memories of the times our families had together, camping together and visiting. I know its been many years since I saw Kris last. But she will always be loved and missed as we all here in Yexas miss all of you! you are and will forever be in our prayers as you all deal with this Very sad and hard time in life. I am very sorry we will not be there for the funeral. But all of you will be heavy on our minds. We Love you all, and again we are so very sorry. But she will watch over all of us with God at her side. Aunt Mary Lou and Uncle Dude, always remember we will all see her again when it too is our time to walk with God. From all the Huffmans here in Texas we are very sorry and send our Love. My God Bless her Soul. She is in a much better place then we are now.
