“ Sharon and I liked Larry. He would visit us and Tony occasionally several years ago. He had a proclivity for showing up around suppertime. We fed him and sometimes sent him home with a loaf of homemade bread. Once he asked me to fix him a Chinese dinner for his birthday. I cooked Sweet and Sour chicken, egg rolls and fried rice. All three of us ate and chatted and had a good time. We have known him for over fifty years. He will be missed. Jón and Sharon Eager.
