“ We were neighbors on Fourth St. for 12 years. Over that time we swapped many jokes and stories, raged about the Buckeyes and Indians and shared a good relationship while doing so. Larry was free with his time and generosity. During our time on Fourth, he loaned us a kid's bike seat, plowed out our drive once or twice, helped us get our cars started a couple of times; if he had something that you could use, he would freely let you borrow it and Larry was, in all ways, an excellent neighbor. There were many outside jobs that ended up taking twice as long to finish because we would always end up talking, if we were both out.

Our kids were little on Fourth; it was a great place for them to grow up and wander the neighborhood. If they were out front, and Larry was out, there was a high probability that they would make their way to his yard and be talking to him.

We went to Cleveland with him and Jennifer at least once and while he and I went out to get food, Manny hit a grand slam! Good times - even if we missed the Ramirez blast.

So, we are very saddened by this news. We have good memories of Larry and the neighborhood. We also want to sincerely offer our condolences to Allison, Madison, mom, brother, sister and all others who are our grieving over this much too early loss.

“ Larry and I were inseparable growing up on 4th street, nearly all the memories of my youth in some way involve him. From the countless hours of one on basketball in his driveway to our big adventure in "73" when we drove his red Camaro to Florida for spring break.

Larry stayed on 4th street and I left but we still talked occasionally usually to offer condolences. He last called four years ago when my brother died. We talked for an hour not about what we had done in our youth but about family. He'll never know how much I appreciated that call.

Larry was a great friend, a great father, and a great man.

My thoughts and prayers are with the Predmore family.
