“ Lillian was my big sister who gave so much of herself to me as I was growing up , she was sister and mother to me in place of my mother. I will so miss our times together be it happy or sad ones , but most of all the summers she would come and spend time with myself and her girls who live close to me. she would tell me she loved to come see me But not to break any arms or legs this was an on going joke between us . I will miss her very, very, much.

“ I met Lil 11 years ago as my "Host-Grandma" when I was an Exchange Student in Ohio. She was such a lovely, warmhearted, nice person and I always enjoyed being with or around her. I am really sad about what happened, all my prayers and thoughts belong to the family.
