Tribute Wall

“ Lyndell “Waldo” Mark Walterhouse, age 60 passed away in his Upper Sandusky home, after a long battle with illness. Born September 2, 1960 in Dayton, Ohio, he was deeply loved by his parents Wayne E. and Betty E. (Alcorn) Walterhouse of Bucyrus, Ohio who preceded him in death.

Known to most by Waldo, he grew up in Monnent, Ohio where he attended Wynford High School. He was an active member of the FFA and loved sports. He spent a great majority of his adult life playing slow pitch softball around the state of Ohio and in Las Vegas, Nevada. He also ran a men's league, co-ed league, and oldtimer league in Upper Sandusky for a stint. Waldo always adorned the "lucky number 13" on the back of his jersey. He loved the number so much that he married his bride Tamara "Tammy" on Friday, September 13, 2013.

Waldo held a lifelong career as a truck driver. Starting after graduation he drove for the Monnent grain elevator, before moving on to Nachurs of Marion, Ohio. His career concluded at Conway Freight in Upper Sandusky, formally known as CCX, where he drove the local route for many years. If he was not behind the wheel of a big rig, he was driving a white Pontiac Bonneville, a Chevy Trail Blazer, or his Harley-Davidson Heritage Softail that he was very proud of.

Waldo enjoyed being outdoors, whether he was camping, lounging around his pool, or tending to his canna lilies. He was a member of many of the local social clubs, where he enjoyed opening pull tabs with his Coors Light. He loved to vacation in Las Vegas, Nevada and could be found at the blackjack tables. Waldo was an avid lover of rock-n-roll music and always had 99.7 The Blitz on. He loves the Buckeyes and the Bengals and made many friends through both fandoms.

Waldo is survived by his wife Tammy (Bame) Walterhouse of Upper Sandusky, along with daughter Whitney (Andy) Williams, who is expecting his first grandchild, step-daughter Brittany Ziessler, step-sons Ben Ziessler and Dominic Solis, sister Cynthia (Skip) McKinney, many nieces and nephews, and his loyal dog, Shadow.

“ Lyndell was my cousin and I remember visiting years ago and we went fishing he had a real fishing pole I only had a stick with a string and a pin. I was sorry to hear he was gone from us, had not been in contact for a few years, he just disappeared and was shocked to find he had passed on 7 months ago, He will be missed with fond memories. May he rest in peace until Jesus comes again.

“ *Lyndell was our neighbor for over 20 years. He was always very kind and helpful when needed. He loved his family very much. Back in the summer and fall he would sit outside in front of his garage in the mornings enjoying the nice weather. When I went by I would stop and converse with him. We will miss him being next door. To Tammy and Whitney;
You are in our thoughts and prayers. God has a purpose for us all. It was a pleasure to have known your dad Whitney. He loved you very much and was proud of who you've become. Love and hugs to all of you, Robin and Colin Binkley*
