“ Meeting Malcolm through Betsy was a highlight of the past few years. He was always fun to talk to and spend time with. I greatly admired his painting talent and his appreciation of art and history and travel. We had a lot of fun with him when he visited us in Atlanta and we toured around the area and celebrated Thanksgiving together. His stories and observations were always interesting to me. I'm so glad we got to visit in Florida, Ohio, and Georgia over the years. He lived a very full, vibrant life and enriched the lives of many. He will be missed but the memories of him will live with us forever. May the perpetual light shine upon him. Bless his soul on its journey home. Love, Maryellen Pienta
