“ Marilyn was the best piano player for our Sounds of Music group and the best church secretary I ever knew. She was a great friend, a true believer and wonderful witness for her Lord. I will miss her but know that she is in no pain and is singing with the angels and all the other musicians in Heaven. Love you Marilyn

“ Marilyn was my niece-in-law, one of many. Our in-laws (out-laws in our family) are always a huge part of the extended family. Recently I have been reviewing old pictures and videos and there she was laughing at one of the reunions. In one picture she was visiting with Doc while he manned the grill. They were having a serious discussion but I have no idea what about. She fought long and hard to continue to be with us. She loved her family and especially her grandchildren. My prayers are with the family and I will remember her with awe and love. Love, Aunt Carol
