“ What can I say....she was an angel and had a little devil too ? (in a good way) ...you could not help but love her...she was precious and was a child of God and loving to others, her sense of humor and love was what kept you in line.

She was just what you needed anytime you saw her. Marilyn told me many times that when she listened to my CD she felt peace and that always made me cry. I will miss her so much...Fairhaven has lost one of its angels but she is home and free and that is what she wanted...my heart is with Carl and the family through this time God is good and is holding her in his arms. Love you all and my heart is with you...so sorry she is gone but what a hope in Christ.

“ I always enjoyed the time I spent with Marilyn when I'd take her to her appointments. We always managed to get a good laugh over something while we were together. Marilyn was a kind woman and loved her family very much, she always had kind words to speak. She'll be missed.

Sincerely

Ann Clark
