“ To Cody's Family, I didnt know Cody and not sure I know any of you , but I had to let you know that all of you are in my thoughts and in my heart. I lost my oldest son almost 9 years ago and he was 23 at the time. There are NO right words to say during your time of grief, but the only advice I can give is to get the grief out or it will eat you up. I still have not found closer to accept my sons death and it has eaten up my life. If you ever need someone to talk to, I am a good listener and we can cry together. My number is 419-673-9451. I am a neighbor to Cody's aunt Betty Lafferty. Please take care and take a day at a time and don't be afraid to to talk about him, cause this will keep him alive in your heart forever.##imported-begin##Jackie K Roberts##imported-end##

“ Dear JoJo -
I scan the "local" news from Indianapolis each morning and was devastated when I read about Cody's accident. You have my deepest sympathies and prayers, Sweet JJ.
Try and focus on Cody's beautiful smile and the warm, loving memories you shared. It will sustain you. The scars will eventually heal; trust me. Your memories of shared LOVE will keep him in your heart.
I ache for you and your loss, my friend ... and will continue keeping you and your loved ones in my prayers.
Sincerely,
Lucy##imported-begin##Lucinda Werling##imported-end##
