“ Martha Ellen Musgrave

*A woman with more nobility than any royalty ever born.
Whose patience and kindness never waned. A woman whose eyes sparkled with intelligence and wit.
Who always had an ear to lend and wisdom to give.
Proud yet not prideful, lessons learned early in life.
A life with many hardships, but filled also with great joy.
She touched us all in many ways, always for the better.
She truly was the best of us, and now she sits with the rest of those that went before.
Our matriarch is gone, but if she represents us, we'll be O.K.
We will always miss her, but we will make sure future generations know of her, for she was our heart and our conscience.
May God wrap her in his arms and help us not to grieve but to rejoice, for that is what she would expect.*

*All of our love,
Your family in Las Vegas: Cora, Jeff, Erica, Ellen, Garrett, Thomas, William, Corey, Elizabeth, and Kailee.##imported-begin##Cora
