“ I have such fond memories of Mrs. Diebert from Eden school. She was always such a cheerful and lively spirit - a loving personality wrapped up in a tiny package. I can still hear her melodious whistling in my memories. May you take comfort in the joy she brought to so many others.

“ Mary Lou was a great love of Eden School. She made the best sweet cornbread and always had a hug and a slime ready for kids who needed it. She loved her kids and her dogs very much. I remember visiting Christina when they had so many puppies! She was so loved by Veronica as well. We also enjoyed her whistling hymns!

“ So sorry for the family’s loss. I knew Mrs Diebert from Eden and then at the junior high She was always so friendly and nice to me. I got to know her best from being a cafeteria server /helper during 6-8 grades. Great memories... sympathy to the families. Vicki Riedlinger Koehler
