“ My mother and father were John and Doris Wissler of Marion, Ohio. My dad and your mother were cousins and I remember your mother coming to visit my mother. Mother always talked so fondly of your mother. I also remember your Aunt. On behalf of my family I offer our condolences. My mother is 96 and still living in Marion. Maryann Wissler Morbitt

“ I can only remember meeting her a couple of times, but I do know my mother loved her. May she rest in peace with her husband. My all of her children be able to hear the laughter from above, and never be sad. Let them no that it is not good bye, but see you again. We give our love to all of the Hill children.....Love, The Hiscock's

“ I will always remember going to my grandparents house for the reunions in August and how grandma would always share the photo albums and talk to me about my dad and how much he did for everyone. I always remember my grandparents watching the weather channel. I remember my grandmother taking us on a mystery tour and just driving in the camper. Rip grandma and always know that we had some good laughs

Love you,
Greg
