“ Cheryl and family,
I am so sorry for your loss. I didn't know your mother personally ,but heard a lot from Cheryl at work. Please find comfort in knowing she is with God now and watching over her girls from above. take Care, “ Juanita, I want you to know Norma and I have you in our prayers.

God have walked with you through several difficult times, know that he remains next to you and will give you the strenght to endure as your mom journey's home to meet her lord and savior.

"I can do everything through Christ who gives me strength." Joshua 1.9

Take care of yourself, my thoughts and prayers are with you and your family.

“ *Juanita,
I am in D.C. And just got the news. I want you to know that my prayers are with you. Only God can ease your pain but in time I know that you will be able to think of good times with mom in a way that only mothers and daughters will understand. Be good to yourself. Always, Laura##imported-begin##Laura York##imported-end##*
