“ Dick and Family, We were so saddened when we saw in the online chief union paper that Mary Lou had passed away. We pray the Lord sends His comfort to all of you. Mary Lou was a good woman and the whole family loved her very much, as was so plain to see. Rest in God's love and know Bill & I are thinking about all of you as go through this most difficult time. You know Bill & I would be there if we still lived in Harpster. All our Love to You & Your Family###imported-begin###Bill & Bev Brown###imported-end##

“ *Richard and family,
Please accept my condolence. I read of Mary Lou's passing in the Courier.
It has been a long time since Rutter reunions, but I recall them as happy times. When time and distance separate, it is memories that comfort and sustain us.
May the Lord watch over you now and always.*###imported-begin###Ned R Rutter###imported-end##
