“ Dear Sally, Chris, Sierra, and Corey,
I just viewed the online memorial to your mother/grandma. It was a lovely tribute to her as well as her husband. I never met either one of them, but they seemed very happy and now they are together once again.
I am sorry for the pain you are experiencing at this time. It is a difficult to know the words that will offer comfort to you, but I am so glad that you all have each other to lean on for support.
I will remember you all in my prayers. Jerrie##imported-begin##Jerrie Yoakam##imported-end##

“ Joe, Sally, Jim, Jay, Sue:
I am so sorry I am not able to make the trip to pay my condolences to your Mom. I always looked forward on my trips to Ohio to stopping to see her. She had a way of making everyone feel wanted and welcome and I always enjoyed my time with her. I will miss her but I will never forget her.

My deepest sympathies;
