“ *Tisha and Amy,
So sorry for your loss. Prayers to you and your families. I think of Bud and you guys often when I drive back through our home town and by our old houses. Lots of great memories there. I always think your driveway looks odd without the old Charger sitting there next to the house. I remember as a kid running outside whenever I would hear it fire up to catch of glimpse of it on the road.
Sincerely,
Ryan McKinniss*

“ Pat,

Condolences to you and your family. Jeff and I have such fond memories of us neighboring in Grant. Remember every time Tuggy (the boxer) would run away from home and would always run straight down to your place for a treat! Remember the fun times Bud and I had in the haymow! Ha ha! RIP Bud, know how much you were loved and know that you will be sadly missed.
