“ My sincere condolences on your loss of Maury. He and Carol were presenters at the Engaged Couples Encounter that my late wife and I attended in 1981. With care and enthusiasm they shared their knowledge & experiences of married life. They are truly missed. Sincerely, Jerry Droll

“ Helen, you and your family are in my prayers. Here is a quote that I know -- not because I know my Bible well, but because of Brahms chorus, which makes me think it may have been familiar to you and Maury too:

"Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord from henceforth: saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labours; and their works do follow them." https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=R430fMfmbhA&list=PLX76w456Dq48obACie-9tF06myso_pU3O&index=9

“ When I started going to Masses on Sat. evenings with my baby girl, Maury & Carol were hospitality ministers that day. As we came through the doors, we were greeted by two of the kindest people I have ever met .From that day on, they looked for us, greeted us & always made us feel welcome. Over the years a friendship developed and with the greetings, they would always give Amanda & me a hug & sometimes a little kiss on the head, forehead or cheek. At some point , Maury & I became reading partners (lectors) for some of the Sat. Masses. Once I told him how lucky their kids were to have him & Carol as their parents. From that day on he said that I could call him Pop, so that's what I did always. May all of you cherish your memories of him & Carol. May the memories bring you much comfort & joy. I know that I will. I thank God for blessing my life with such wonderful people.

“ My mom graduated with Maury, and as two of the last surviving members of their class, they shared many memories. Mom enjoyed his visits and bringing communion to her.

“ As a Eucharistic minister, visits with Maury were so very interesting with his skill at conversation and vast knowledge, even at his age! Friendship, Faith, & Family were his focal points in life and having been one of his friends is truly an honor. May his loved ones be comforted knowing he made many lives better just by being himself and that he is at peace in God's kingdom with Carol and many others who've welcomed him to Heaven!

“Maury was a most wonderful person and mentor. He got me more involved in Church activities especially visiting the sick and the homebound. It was pleasing to note that Maury remembered me after he moved to Fairhaven. He didn't particularly remember what I did before I retired but would call me to help him arrange his doctor appointments. The last call was to make sure I was still practicing and he still had his dental appointment. He knew I was Tom but thought I was Claude Beitler. I always made sure he knew I would take care of what he needed and then I would call Fairhaven to make sure they were aware of his needs.
