“ Max was and always will be my best friend and brother I miss him so much. I remember the first time I met Max and Thomas. They tried to chase me across a field. I was too fast for either of them. They were young and loved to tease girls. We became close friends after that. He always laughed and said, "dang you were fast!" Always made me laugh and when I was down her help me back up. I have photos that will tell a story too. You will always be in our hearts, never forgotten. Always loved. Be with God and put smiles on everyone's faces. Max " love you " see you soon!
