“ "A Parable of Immortality" by Henry van Dyke.

*I am standing by the seashore.
A ship at my side spreads her white sails to the morning breeze and starts for the blue ocean.
She is an object of beauty and strength,
and I stand and watch
until at last she hangs like a speck of white cloud just where the sun and sky come down to mingle with each other.*

*Then someone at my side says, 'There she goes!
Gone where? Gone from my sight - that is all.*

*She is just as large in mast and hull and spar
as she was when she left my side and just as able to bear her load of living freight to the places of destination.
Her diminished size is in me, not in her.*

*And just at the moment when someone at my side says,
'There she goes! ',
there are other eyes watching her coming,
and other voices ready to take up the glad shout :
'Here she comes!'*###imported-begin##A Riverdale mom###imported-

“ Words cannot express how this sad event has touched so many people in this small community, especially with Veronica who has cheered with Mindi. Even though we have only known Mindi and her family for 1yr, we all feel like family and that is how Mindi, Ann and Amy make you feel - The cheerleaders are lost without such a bubbly, outgoing, LOUD VOICE that would be heard over hundreds of screaming fans either at a competition or football game - my girls knew if it was Veronica or Mindi (2 with very louds voices) - She is cheering everyone on to help get through this - Ann - Hear her - She's in your heart as well as all of us - You are missed!

We never know why, but just know God is in control and He will carry you through this hard time. Mindy is now walking streets of gold beside all the love ones that have passed on before her. “ *Mindi, this is so hard to believe. Its like just yesterday we were at cheerleading competitions laughing with you and the squad. You would always cheer us on and tell us we could do it. you would yell our cheer and chant with us and scream during our dances. We loved watching Riverdale squad go first you were so bubbly and amped ready to go that it got us pumped up to go. You will be so sadly missed by everyone....your beautiful smile and your personality. We all love you and miss you deeply!!! You will always be in our hearts and prayers. “ I share your sorrow, I too was a mother of one who was taken so soon in 1985. The hurt is still there, but like Mindi I feel that God let my son, as well as Mindi, do so many things so well because He knew they did not have a very long time to get them done. Be blessed knowing you had a wonderful daughter. May the love of friends and your trust in God comfort you at this time. Ann - Forest Ohio###imported-begin###Ann###imported-end###

She was the one I turned to when I wanted to quit cheerleading, and after a long heart to heart she has convinced me to stick with it. “ Mindi has touched the lives of so many and I think I grieve most for all the lives she never got the chance to bless with her spirit. She was going to coach my Steelers midget squad with Cory this year and I was the envy of all the advisors in Findlay. While I was thrilled by the skill and love of the sport that she would have brought to these young girls, I was most grateful for the energy and attitude she brought to everything she touched. The gym lit up when Mindi arrived. Although my heart is heavy from the loss, I know that my girls have a dedicated little cheer angel watching over them.##imported-begin##Tonya, Tiani, & Mya##imported-end##

I can't believe that she won't walk down the hallway the next day at school. I just keep telling myself that it is all a practicl joke it would be a cruel one but that would be better than this. “ High-spirited, inspiring, motivating, fun-loving, determined, CrAZy fun... This is the Mindi we knew and loved. The world has lost one of the most incredible persons I personally have ever known. If you didn't know her, you wanted to get to know her! I can remember at the Hancock County Fair (this past summer), she caught my husband's attention and he said, "That little girl from the Riverdale squad looks like she really loves life." I told him, "Oh that's Mindi! She cheered with us last year." She was a role model to anyone who knew her--children and adults alike. Always positive, always encouraging, always...MINDI!!

Mindi was such a wonderful young lady, I never saw her that she wasn't smiling, she was so wonderful to me and my family when we lost Chase. The one thing that has helped me the most through this is something father J.R. said at chase's funeral, that some people come into our lives like shooting stars, that they burn sooo bright while they're here that they burn out sooner then the rest, he said Chase was like that because of "who" he was, caring so much for others, etc. Mindi is so much like him in personality, she shone just as brightly, and was such a blessing in her short time here. You are in my constant thoughts and prayers. We don't understand these things - yet God has a plan for everyone. We have discussed this many times throughout the years.

Mindi always had a smile - just like you Ann. Her zest for life is something that will never be forgotten. She has touched so many lives with her positive attitude, smiles, and laughter.

Seems like yesterday when she was throwing candy out of the truck for midget cheerleaders at the Wharton Parade.

Please know that I am here Ann - and always will be - as we have been for each other since the loss of our precious parents and siblings.

May God surround you with love, strength, and memories of Mindi. Cherish the memories that you created and shared - for they will give you strength in the coming days.

Love you guys!!
