“ To my cousins, all - David, Julia, Eldon, Arlene.

Thinking of you this morning, this hour as you gather to honor your Mother's life and her passing. I'm visualizing time with my Aunt Mildred in May, 2004, my few days back in Ohio for the 50th HS class reunion. One afternoon Carolyn drove me to visit Mildred, our time reminiscing, the talk progressing to photographs of long ago days. Her memory recall was admirable, stories with details as I questioned both aunts. Plus my admiration that she was still healthy enough to remain on the "farm". May we all possess those genes! It was a memorable afternoon.

There is a Chinese saying "The river flows past in an endless stream..." meaning never-ending, a continuous flow. Such be the memories of your Mother.

With hugs and love for all of you,

“ To David, Julia, Eldon, Arlene, & your families,

Please accept our condolences on the passing of your mother, Mildred. What a wonderful blessing she was to all of you. And, what a blessing that she lived such a long & healthy life and was able to enjoy so many grandchildren & great grandchildren. The Lord was surely good to her! We know you will miss her greatly. Even when our loved ones live a full & rich life, we are never ready to let them go. She is only gone from your sight now, but never from all the precious memories you have of her.

I (Gloria) remember well the good time I last had visiting with Aunt Mildred at Kevin & Laura's wedding in June '05. Aunt Carolyn & Uncle Medford were there also. The four of us sat together throughout the reception, sharing, laughing, telling stories & enjoying a long overdue visit. It was precious!

We will continue to pray for you ... that the Lord will sustain you, strengthen you, & surround you with HIS peace.

IN HIS LOVE,

*Ron, Gloria, & Jessica Frost###imported-begin###Ron & Gloria
