“ Dear Rodney and Roger,
I am so sorry to hear of your loss. The news was in the paper waiting for me when I came home from babysitting my own twin grandsons. You were both wonderful and tackled a very difficult job-caring for your Mom as long as you did in her own home. I am certain she felt your love and is very proud of you both. I have warm memories of my visits to see Mildred and you. I count it an honor and privilege to have known your family.

You may not remember me- I am the hospice nurse that came most often and live in Danbury myself. Rodney, we recently ran into each other at Walmart.

Love and prayers, Lynn##imported-begin##Lynn Mate Cramer
