

Morrel F. Shane

June 20, 2006

Graveside services for Morrel F. Shane will be 1 p.m. Friday at Wharton-Richland Union Cemetery, Wharton, by the Rev. Ivan Schwenn.

He died at 11:44 a.m. Tuesday, June 20, 2006.

He was born Feb. 8, 1914, in Wyandot County, to Alco and Edith (Brown) Shane. On March 6, 1938, he married Frieda M. Hueberger and she preceded him in death March 3, 1980.

Surviving are a son, James O. (Nancy) Shane of Upper Sandusky; two daughters, Julia Baker of Findlay and Jennell Shane of Carey; a brother, Russell Shane of Vanlue; three sisters, Cleo Mathias of Painsville, Doris Kear of Upper Sandusky and Virginia Schmidt of Upper Sandusky; eight grandchildren, 22 great-grandchildren and one great-great-grandchild.

He was preceded in death by three brothers and a sister.

He was a retired farmer and co-owner of Shane's Meat Processing, Upper Sandusky.

He was a member of the National Rifle Association., Wyandot County Beef Association, Federal Land Bank Board and past president, former member Lincoln Grange, former member of the Wharton Board of Education, and attended Big Oak United Methodist Church.

Memorials may be made to Big Oak Church Mission for the shut-ins.

Arrangements are being handled by Shields Funeral Home, Forest.

Condolences may be sent via www.shieldsfh.com.

Tribute Wall

“ Hi Jennell, I just seeb in the paper that you lost your beloved Father. You and the family are in my prayers. I think that you will remember me , I worked with you at Fox Run Nursing Home a few years ago. If you want to write to me on the computer please do. If you need someone to talk to please write to me then I can give you my phone number. Take care and God Bless each of you. Sincerely Linda Dindal###imported-begin##Linda Dindal##imported-end##

June 22, 2006 at 12:00 AM