

Norma L. Conley

March 12, 2004

Services for Norma L. Conley will be 11 a.m. Thurs-day at Shields Funeral Home, Forest, by Pastor Gregg King. Burial will be in Dunkirk Cemetery. Friends may call 2-8 p.m. Wednesday. She died at 7:50 p.m. Friday, March 12, 2004, at Hardin Memorial Hospital, Kenton. She was born May 20, 1941, in Hardin County, Harry E. and Irena (Cole) Watkins. She married William Hackathorn and they divorced. She married Dennis Conley and he preceded her in death on March 2, 1976. Surviving are two sons, Stephen W. Hackathorn of Marengo and Bryon L. Conley of Dola; a sister, Glenna Baird of Russells Point; three grandchildren, Amanda Lea Hacka-thorn of Russells Point, Jason James Hackathorn of Kenton and Brooke Jolene Conley of Lima; a great-grandchild, James Lee Murphy of Russells Point. She was retired from Scioto Sign and previously worked for the Hardin County Farm Bureau, North Electric and Thompson's Locker. Memorials may be made to the Bridgeport Church.