“ Pat and family,

So sorry about Norm. He was such a great guy! Im going to miss his wonderful jokes and his beautiful smile :) He always seemed so happy and always made my day when he talked and joked with me. I will always have those great memories as will you and your family. May God help ease your pain at this time of sorrow. God Bless your family.

“ It is with a deep heart that I write this for the Wolfrom Family. Norman and I were both named after Norman Conn of Van Wert. Louie and my father Ferrol Wolfrom were friends since the 1920s. When I worked for ODOT I got to see Norman and June at quarry and always enjoyed our chats about when we were children. I retired from ODOT and we have lived in Sedona, Az for 14 years. God bless the family and Norman whom is in good hands with our lord.##imported-begin##Norman S Wolfrom##imported-end##
