“ I am saddened by this news. I had the pleasure of working for several years with Paul before he retired from Job & Family Services. Some good time times eating lunch with him and working across the isle from him. I loved making Paul laugh even to the point of tears. I was lucky enough to get my yearly phone call from Paul and got to visit him before he went to Westbrook. My thoughts are with the family in this time of loss. Paul was a good guy and a friend.
