“ I didn't have the pleasure of meeting Ralph, but I did have the pleasure of casemanaging him and having much contact with Jo, and through her I have come to realize how special Ralph was.

I know that he is in heaven looking down on us all, and when I go there someday I will seek him out and get to meet him, I look forward to this, for I can never meet enough special people.

Jo, my prayers have been and will continue to be with you and your family, as you grieve and move forward with your lives.

Sincerely,

“ Jo and Family, I am so sorry for your loss. You are all in my thoughts and prayers. You gave Ralph a wonderful gift by caring for him and allowing him to stay in his own home. I am sure it was not easy at times. I hope that you have good memories to get you through the days ahead. Take care of each other. Lisa Hawk###imported-begin###Lisa Hawk###imported-end##

“ We don't want you in pain
We don't want you to suffer
We don't want you to leave us Before or after supper

If it's God's will it will be done there's no changing it at all you maybe racing kids in heaven down a hall

God's going to watch over you no matter where you are while you're here with us or there with Him

If you go to hangout in Heaven we'll see you after a while just remember to greet us there at the gates with a big happy smile

If he takes you soon it means he needs a young feisty angle one who can be mean as fire or sweet as candy and stick with a person for a while

*You're loved and always have been, through every single day, by every single person, in EVERY SINGLE WAY!!##imported-begin##Bill, Tom &
