“ I’m reminded of taking evening bicycle rides with my dad Paul Hilderbrand. We would stop by their house as they sat outside and say hello!

“ To Dick's Family. I am very sorry for your loss. Dick, my cousin, was a good man. May I share this Native American Prayer.

*I give you this one thought to keep--
I am with you still--I do not sleep.
I am a thousand winds that blow,
I am the diamond glints on snow,
I am the sunlight on ripened grain,
I am the gentle autumn rain.*

*When you awaken in the morning's hush,
I am the swift, uplifting rush
Of quiet birds in circled flight.
I am the soft stars that shine at night--
Do not think of me as gone--
I am with you still in each new dawn.*
