“ Connie,
So sorry for your loss. I remember when you first introduced us to Ron at the Council on Aging. He was such a good guy and a good sport. He helped us assemble the packets for the Fantasy of Lights that year and went above and beyond in helping. I know that you will miss him terribly and he will be missed within the community.

“ Met Ron and Connie again several years ago after they paid tribute to my brother. Ron was as charming and professional as fifty years ago. Sympathies are extended to family at this time.
