“ To the Miller Family,

I am sorry for you loss. I knew Mr. Miller from his visits to the Martha Morehouse in Columbus. He was such a kind person and we all looked foward to seeing him (and his wife) at every visit. We loved talking with him about OSU games, the Steelers, and his card collection. He left a lasting impression on us and he will be remembered as the kind man he certainly was. My thoughts and prayers are with you during this difficult time.

“ My sympathy to all of the family. I know he suffered, but that is over now and he's looking down on all of you with love. He will be greatly missed by many. I so remember the days of Nifty Kids 4-H club. Geri, you both went out of your way to help all the kids (and parents) with something that was so dear to you both. Thank you for being "pillars of the community" in so many ways. God be with you in your time of need.##imported-begin##Clarice Atherholt##imported-end##
