“ My locker was next to Rose's locker through Junior High and High School. Rose was friendly to all of her classmates and always had a smile on her face. What I remember the most about her...her fun and crazy personality. The things she would say would crack me up. Rose and Jen Smith were partners in crime in school. My prayers go out to her family.##imported-begin##Trisha Swartz White##imported-end##

“ Rose was a sweet person. She took everything to heart. everyone is right Rose was a fighter but she is no longer suffering,she is at peace. We have been friends since seventh grade. I would not want her mad at you. I loved her as a dear friend. I did not get to see her as much as I would have liked,but I tried. think of her and time will help. God Bless. celebrate her life and think of all the time with her. she will really be missed##imported-begin##pam ferst (forman)##imported-end##

“ *There is nothing i can do, to make her come back
There are no words I can say, that can replace the words you long to hear*

*There are no answer's I can give,
that will satisfy your questions
There is not another soul I can introduce you to that will ever replace her
And, there is no love I can offer that will ever replace the love you shared*

*I can not promise your broken heart will ever be complete
I will not say it could have been worse
I will not deny it was a tragedy
I will not lie and tell you she will come back*

She never really left

*I do promise she hears you when you speak
I will say she loves you no matter the distance
I will not deny she is in a better place
And, I will not lie; she is waiting to greet you someday*

*She is in every you step you take
She is in everything you do
She is the air you breathe
She is every beat of your heart*

" She is like the wind. You can not see Her...but you will always feel Her"###imported-begin###Tammy Martin###imported-end###

“ Four Candles for You

*The first candle represents our grief.
The pain of losing you is intense.
It reminds us of the depth of our love for you.
This second candle represents our courage.
To confront our sorrow,
To comfort each other,
To change our lives.*

*This third candle we light in your memory.
For the times we laughed,
The times we cried,
The times we were angry with each other,
The silly things you did,
The caring and joy you gave us.*

*This fourth candle we light for our love.
We light this candle that your light will always shine.
As we enter this holiday season and share this night of remembrance
with our family and friends.*

*We cherish the special place in our hearts that will always be reserved for you.
We thank you for the gift your living brought to each of us.*

*We love you.
We remember you.##imported-begin##Tammy Martin##imported-

“ I was deeply saddened when I heard about Rose's passing. We went to Catholic School together, and lived across the street from each other until 7th grade. We had slumber parties, rode bikes & played together. My deepest condolences to Rose's immediate & extended family as well as all who knew her. You're in our prayers & thoughts. May you find peace that she's now out of pain & in the safety of God's arms.##imported-begin##Jennifer Saull Best##imported-end##

“ To the family of Rose Swartz,
Our thoughts and prayers are with you. We loved Rose and know her struggle has been lengthy. Rose has given me so much encouragement and strength through my own battle with leukemia. She has shown grace and courage and love for life throughout this long battle. She loved her children and family dearly and I am certain that she is now at peace. She has given me the courage to go on when I didn't know if I could. We will sadly miss her and pray for her children and family. “ The Swartz and Pryor Families,

I have many memories of Rose from my brother being married to Sheila and from working with her at the hospital. She was a funny, kind, fun person and she loved her children and family more than anything. She was a fighter and was a stronger woman than most of us ever could be. She is finally at piece now. God Bless you.
