“ I send my deepest sympathy to Rosemary's family. I graduated from Mercy Hospital School of Nursing with Rosemary where we shared so much during those three years and remained friends, connecting periodically over the years. “ Lots of good memories of a neighbor and friend from Stow. Our children became friends during the couple of years you lived in this area. Today our contacts continue through on-line emails and Skype. I was glad for the opportunity to see and visit with your mom on Skype and enjoy the continued contacts primarily with Tim and occasionally with the others to keep in touch.##imported-begin##Betty M Crawford##imported-end##

“ Wishing you all peace and comfort at this difficult time. The last time I saw Aunt Rosie was during a business trip to Houston many years ago. My father (her brother James) had insisted that I contact her to make arrangements to see her although it had been such a long time since she and I had last spoken (maybe decades), and I was somewhat apprehensive. I remember that we arranged to meet on the side of some road in Houston, TX so that I could follow her vehicle to my cousin Dan's for a little life celebration. I recall how fashionable she looked when we got out of our cars to make plans for the trip to Dan's--she had a red blouse on and matching shoes and we screamed and threw our arms up in the air when we saw each other to prepare for the long big hug that we both knew was coming. It was a beautiful day and I am thankful for the love of a brother and sister that gave me the opportunity to re-connect with Aunt Rosie, Timmy and Dan on that special day. My heart goes out to the entire family. Love, Sylvia###imported-begin##Sylvia (Casey) Sullivan###imported-end##
