“ My deepest sympathy to you and your families. Your mom was such a sweet, kind lady. I always think fondly of Ruth and my mom working together so many years as Sunday school teachers. I also remember her dedication as a volunteer at school helping so many teachers and students throughout the years. I wish you many warm memories as you celebrate and remember Ruth's life during this time of sadness. She was a special person.

Ruth was a great lady. It was an honor to have her for my friend the last 33 years. I will miss seeing her face that always had a smile. I am so sorry for your sadness and the void it will leave with her passing. I am certain she is soaring like an eagle now! If anyone earned their wings, it would be Ruth.
