“ Dear Connie, Cathy and Chuck your parents were such dear people. Nothing like our childhood days, hanging out at your house, playing and living a carefree life of neighborhood tag and hide 'n seek! I remember your Mom having your Dad change your bathroom fixtures around~~I just couldn't believe that could be done! I am saddened by the loss of your Mother and I send my prayers and deepest sympathy to each of you. Thank God we have the cherished memories that will keep our loved ones alive in our hearts and minds. Love, Jane Laudick Ensminger###imported-begin###Jane Laudick Ensminger###imported-end##

“ Chuck, Cathy and Connie.

What a week, Jean Garner and Ruth Coons. The Star Theatee would not be in existance today without Jean and Ruth. We did not know what we were doing but we could always count on Ruth to be there and do whatever was necessary. From costumes to tickets, she was alsays available and ready to step in. As a board member, Ruth always backed the decisions necessary to start and keep the theater in operation. I also relate Ruth to St. Pauls. From the choir to the kitchen, Ruth, thelma, and Ruby are all names that bring about memories of growing up at St. Paul's. I cannot be there tonight but wanted to let you know what Ruth meant to me and her passing is a real reality check.
