“ Hi, Here is tribute to a great lady!! Loved to talk to her in the painting/wallpapering experience. And that was after she "retired". Saw her last at the library with Cheryl.
With sincere sympathy, Marilyn K. McClain.

“ Sally was like a mom to me. She was caring, funny, fun to be around and loving. I loved working with Sally for Cheryl's decorating business. One time while painting Sally somehow sat in some black paint. We always seemed to get into trouble and we always had fun painting together. Tom and I were very grateful to have seen Sally while in Ohio in March. We will miss you Mama Sally.
