“ Skyler, it was honor to call you my best friend growing up. All the fun we had and the great memories we made, but also how much you always helped me during the struggles of life. It's hard to explain how deep our friendship was, and I consider myself extremely lucky that you were always there, even after all these years. I love you brother, and I will constantly tell my kids about all of our amazing times together. You will be greatly missed and I just need to say thank you. Thank you for everything. Sending love to the family, and just know how much Skyler meant to so many people.

“ Skyler was the best friend of my youngest son, and was at our house many a day. He was like one of my own. My older sons picked on him just like he was their little brother. I will always cherish those memories. He was just a joy to be around and will be missed terribly by those who loved him. Mu sympathy to Laurie, Steve and Spencer, may God give you strength to get though this difficult time.
