“ Dear Jack,

I will always remember my first meeting with you and Susan. The 4 of us got together for a dinner at your place, always wonderful meals. Unknown to me, you two were evaluating my suitability to be a significant part of Leni's life.

Then at a later time when Leni was doing our wedding plans you and Susan visited us to convince me that what I wanted to wear, (tailor made bibs) and getting married after a balloon flight, were not acceptable. Much to my chagrin you won another debate. I was at an unfair disadvantage to you and Susan's expertise at argument and debate.

You and Susan will always have a warm spot in my heart for the part you played in our lives.

Much Love

“ To the family;

Susan was endeared by ALL her students. Mary Lou recommended Susan to me as an accounting instructor. After the first night of class I called Mary Lou and thanked her for the recommendation.

Teaching is a noble and admirable profession and Susan loved to teach and motivate her students. Susan was a true educator that means worked hard to find a way to make difficult course material fun and engaging. May God bless her joyful soul and give the family comfort and peace.

“ Susan was a wonderful co-worker and friend. I will miss our exciting conversations regarding sports and politics. She was an excellent teacher, who's compassion and desire for student success is unmatched. She will be truly missed by staff and students at CSCC (Westerville site). Her death is still hard to comprehend, but her memory will stay with us for years. I pray for comfort for the family during this tragic time.##imported-begin##Lawrence James##imported-end##

“ Jack--

We were stunned when we read the news of Susan's passing in The Courier. She truly was a "jubilant" person, who had the gift of being able to bring joy to others. While we have lost touch over the years, she (and you) have often been in our thoughts and always held (and will continue to hold) a special place in our hearts.

We regret that will will not be able to come and convey our sympathies in person as we will be in Ashland County Friday-Sunday for my nephew Zach's wedding.

Had Susan been ill? I recently had become a Facebook "friend" hoping to catch some news of what she and you had been up to and to use that as a vehicle for getting in touch as I wasn't sure how to get in touch these days. I regret I hadn't acted sooner.

You and the family will be in our prayers.

Love,

“ I will remember Susan as one of the kindest, sweetest people I have ever met. Over the long time I knew her, she sent me a birthday card every single year--she never forgot! She was also very funny and had a quick wit. It was always such a cheerful experience to spend time with her! She was a good friend to everyone, especially her good buddy, Tim. And she loved her husband, Jack, very much. I will really miss her.##imported-begin##Monica

“ My deepest sympathy for her family. Susan taught me Accounting I & II at Columbus State in Westerville. Susan was the best teacher. She gave out lots of handouts and made every class fun. I'll miss not being able to recommend her to other students. I also told them she is the best.##imported-begin##Mary Lou (Clouse) Hittle##imported-end##
