“ *My sincere sympathy to Thelma's family upon her passing. I hadn't seen her in quite a while and we had such a lovely conversation at Walmart (of all places) on Wednesday - talking pear sauce and Mennonite stores and sniffing the ripeness of nectarines - and the next day she was gone. I'm so sad. What a wonderful lady - such a warm and generous spirit. Thelma will truly be missed. May you all find comfort in loving memories of this dear woman.

“ I was lucky enough to have had Thelma for a 4-H advisor for both cooking and sewing. She made me rip out a lot of seams and hems but I learned a lot. She had so much patience and loved to teach. Truly grateful for all the memories. --- Jill (Clinger) Rowe
