“ I am sorry to hear of your loss. Way to young. I lost contact with Tom many years ago, Whatever the life choices he made, I will never forget this friendship and kindness he showed me during the growing years, little league.... junior high football.....high school....playing poker at Al's and Dean"s. He was always a kind soul to me

I send my condolences to all of you. Tom had a big heart. I remember him giving me some big brother-cousinly advice when I first moved away from home. He knew I wasn't very street smart :).
