“ Tim was a good soul who cared about people. He was my first friend, starting in kindergarten. I moved away after third grade (he even traveled to Chillicothe with us as we house hunted). When I returned from New Orleans my senior year, Tim was waiting with his friendship once again. I was an usher at he and Portia's wedding. May God bless the memory of Tim Sons. May God comfort the souls of all who loved Tim and who mourn his passing.
